The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

WAlter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the $\frac{\text{21st of January, O. S.}}{\text{1st of February, N. S.}}$ in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Copenhagen, from the Office of his Majesty's Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.

Naples, Nov. 9. By Order of the Court ten Shebecks are building in this Port, which are to be compleated within the Month of January next. On the 16th past we had a violent Hurricane, accompanied with Thunder and Lightning, which burst on the House of a Merchant, and caused considerable Damage. On the 18th anchored at this Port from a Cruize, two of the King's Half Gallies to refit. They are ordered to sail again with all possible Expedition for the Coast of Calabria, the Rendezvous of the King's Sea Forces, to protect his Subjects from the great Impediment they meet with in their Commerce by the Barbary Pyrates.

Rome, Nov. 11. The Chevalier Cappello, the new Venetian Ambassador to this Court, arrived here on Thursday Morning last; and the same Day sent one of his own Secretaries to acquaint the Secretary of State therewith. The Pope has conferred the Abby which the late Cardinal Albani enjoyed in the Novarrois, of about the Value of 1000 Crowns per Annum, on Cardinal Mellini.

Stockholm, Nov. 11. The Diet of the States of this Kingdom continue their Assembly with the greatest Harmony imaginable, and it is expected will have compleated all their Business by the End of this Month. 'Tis now said for certain, that the Ceremony of their Majesties Coronation is actually fixed for the 8th of next Month, to see which, great Numbers of Foreign Nobility are already arrived here. They continue with great Diligence the Building of the Houses that were consumed by the late great Fires; and, according to the King's Example, the Senators, and other Persons of Distinction among the Nobility, have contributed very considerable Sums towards rebuilding the same.

Prague, Nov. 13. Orders having been given for preparing against the Spring new Cloaths for all the Troops quartered in this Kingdom; the Officers of the Regiments in Garrison in this City and its Neighbourhood, are already taking the necessary Measures for that Purpose.

Dresden, Nov. 13. Their Majesties are still at St. Hubertsbourg with the whole Court, and propose to reside there till the End of this Month. A few Days ago died at Chemnitz, Major General Franckenbourg; and the King has already disposed of the Regiment he commanded in Favour of General Perck.

Vienna,

Vienna, Nov. 15. Laſt Week the Court diſpatched an Expreſs to Peterſbourg, with the Pictures of their Imperial Majeſties and the young Imperial Family, as likewiſe thoſe of Prince Charles and the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain; they were done at the Deſire of the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and are to be placed in the Great Hall of her Palace of Czarkazelo. On Monday next their Imperial Majeſties propoſe coming hither from Schonbrun for the Winter. We have received Advice, that the Differences which have ſubſiſted for ſome Time paſt between the Electors of Saxony, Bavaria, and Palatin, in Relation to the Right of exerciſing the Function of Vicar of the Empire, in Caſe of the Emperor's Death, are at length happily adjuſted to the mutual Satisfaction of thoſe three Courts. This News gives great Pleaſure here, and 'tis ſaid the Convention agreed upon on this Occaſion, will be immediately laid before the Diet of Ratiſbon for their Approbation, in order to its being afterwards ratified by his Imperial Majeſty.

Hague, Nov. 25. Yeſterday the States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland opened their Aſſembly. This Day her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante nominated the Magiſtrates of this Place for the Year enſuing.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of his Majesty's Royal Letters Patent, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

These Powders are sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy them for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

N. B. Attendance is given by Mr. Newbery or his Agents at the Amsterdam Coffee-house near the Royal Exchange, every Day from Twelve till Two, to receive Orders for Exportation.

TO be peremptorily sold, together or in Parcels, pursuant to a Decree and a subsequent Order of the High Court of Chancery, before Richard Edwards, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Chancery Lane, on Friday the 13th Day of December next, between the Hours of Four and Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, A very convenient Mansion-house, with a Brew-house, Dove-house, Coach-house, Granary and other Outhouses, Orchard and Garden, and divers Messuages, Lands and Tenements, at Wolmistone in the Parish of Crewkerne in Somersetshire; and also divers Parcels of Garden-Ground and other Land; and the Moiety of two Houses and a Close of Pasture Ground in Crewkerne aforesaid; and a Tenement called Henwoods, and a Close of Meadow Ground at Broadwinsor in the County of Dorset, the Estate of William Merefield, Esq; Particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers,
